BUCKEYE PARTNERS, L.P. ANNOUNCES SALE OF AN ADDITIONAL 208,600 LIMITED PARTNERSHIP UNITS

Breinigsville, PA – March 14, 2007 . . . Buckeye GP LLC, the general partner of Buckeye Partners, L.P. (NYSE:BPL) (the “Partnership”), today announces that the underwriters of its recent equity offering have exercised their option to purchase an additional 208,600 limited partnership units. This sale is part of the Partnership’s equity offering that was priced on February 27. The underwriter had a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 225,000 limited partnership units to cover over-allotments. The Partnership intends to use the net proceeds from this offering to reduce indebtedness under its revolving credit facility.

Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated acted as the sole underwriter for this offering. A copy of the final prospectus supplement and base prospectus relating to this offering can be obtained from Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, Prospectus Department, 180 Varick Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10014 or by e-mail at prospectus@morganstanley.com.

Buckeye Partners, L.P., through its operating subsidiaries, owns and operates one of the largest independent refined petroleum products pipeline systems in the United States in terms of volumes delivered, with approximately 5,400 miles of pipeline.

The Partnership also owns and operates 47 refined petroleum products terminals with an aggregate storage capacity of approximately 19.1 million barrels in Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania, and operates and maintains approximately 2,500 miles of pipeline under agreements with major oil and chemical companies. This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that the General Partner believes to be reasonable as of today's date. Actual results may differ significantly because of risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of the Partnership. Among them are (1) adverse weather conditions resulting in reduced demand; (2) changes in rate regulation by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission; (3) changes in other laws and regulations, including safety, tax and accounting matters; (4) competitive pressures from other transportation services and alternative energy sources; (5) liability for environmental claims; (6) improvements in energy efficiency and technology resulting in reduced demand; (7) the inability to integrate acquired assets successfully with the Partnership's existing assets and to realize anticipated cost savings and other efficiencies; (8) labor relations; (9) changes in real property tax assessments; (10) regional economic conditions; (11) market prices of petroleum products and the demand for those products in the Partnership's service territory; (12) disruptions to the air travel system; (13) security issues relating to the Partnership's assets; (14) interest rate fluctuations and other capital market conditions; (15) unanticipated capital expenditures and operating expenses to repair or replace the Partnership's assets; (16) availability and cost of insurance on the Partnership's assets and operations; (17) expansion in the operations of the Partnership's competitors; (18) shut-downs or cutbacks at major refineries that use the Partnership's services; and (19) the treatment of the Partnership as a corporation for federal income tax purposes or the Partnership becoming subject to entity-level taxation for state tax purposes. You should read the Partnership's Annual Report on Form 10-K, and its most recently filed Form 10-Q, for a more extensive list of factors that could affect results. The Partnership undertakes no obligation to revise its forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances occurring after today's date.
